classic cocktails

WHISKEY SOUR 60

The whiskey sour is an all-time classic containing whiskey, lemon juice, sugar, a dash of Angostura bitter & egg white. Created in 1762, bartender's hero named Vice Admiral Edward Vernon of England began mixing a few ingredients together to serve to his Sailor crew.

NEGRONI 80

The Negroni is a popular Italian cocktail, made of one-part gin, one part vermouth rosso and one part Campari, garnished with orange peel. It is considered an aperitif. Negroni was invented in Florence, Italy in early 20th century.

MOSCOW MULE 65

The Moscow mule is a famous cocktail made with vodka, ginger ale and lime juice, garnished with a wedge of lime. Served in a copper mug, which takes on the cold temperature of the liquid. The cocktail was in fact invented in LA (not Moscow) in 1941 in The Cock and Bull restaurant on Sunset Boulevard in Los Angeles, which was popular with celebrities.

MARGARITA 60

A margarita is an all-time classic cocktail consisting of tequila, orange liqueur and lime juice often served with salt on the rim of the glass. The drink is served shaken with ice, blended with ice or without ice or on the rocks. Originally created in 1937.

APEROL SPRITZ 60

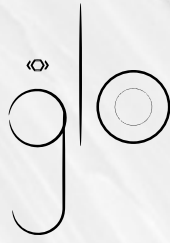

The Aperol Spritz, also called just Spritz, is an Italian wine-based cocktail, commonly served as an aperitif in Northeast Italy. It consists of prosecco, Aperol and soda water on the rocks. Aperol Spritz became popular in the 1950s, inspired by the Venetian mix of white wine and soda.

The background of the image is a classic marbled paper pattern, often used in book covers or endpapers. It features intricate, swirling, and wavy lines in various shades of light gray, off-white, and pale blue, creating a complex, organic texture. The lines flow across the page, sometimes forming larger, more defined shapes and other times appearing as fine, delicate veins.
