The background image shows the exterior of Temasek Hall, a large, modern building with a prominent gabled roof and a central entrance. The building is light-colored with dark window frames. In the foreground, there are some green bushes and a large, abstract sculpture. The overall scene is dimly lit, suggesting dusk or dawn.

Welcome to Temasek Hall!

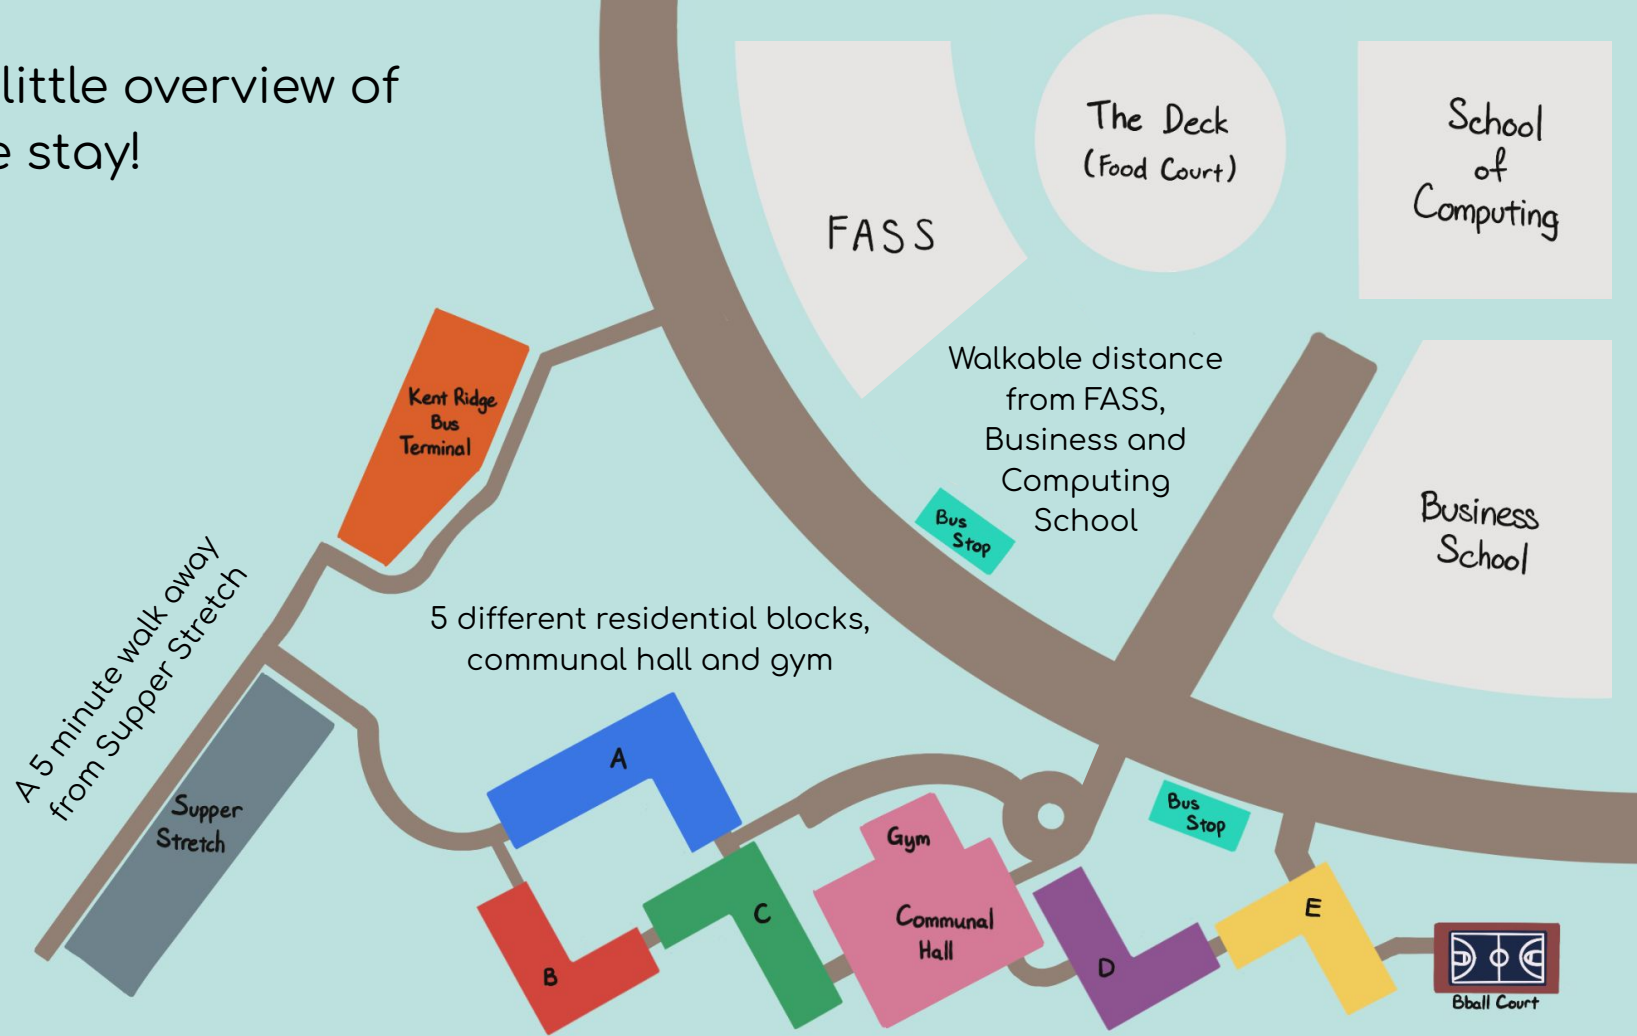

We are excited to share more about TH with you.

TH is a holistic hostel that provides a home to NUS students, giving them a podium to excel in both sports and culture. TH provides its residents with a wide variety of co-curricular activities, ranging from sports to committees to culture. There is a place for everyone to shine and grow as a Temasekian.

TH is more than just a hostel, it has become a family for its residents and no one is left behind. Bonds forged here are not superficial but instead friends made here are lasting and even life-long.

“Some call it a hostel, we call it home.”
