Message

From the desk of Director's

Dear Readers,

It is very well known to everybody that a school is "a temple of learning". This is a unique combination of two words - 'temple and learning'. Temple symbolizes holiness, purity and godliness. Learning is the process of imbibing knowledge in different ways. Coming to school is like going to a temple. We go with purpose and certain frame of mind. Our teachers are the priests of what we are going to gain. First foremost we should go with sincerity and purity of mind. Our teachers are the priests of the temple - they offer us the "Prasad" of knowledge and guide us on the right path of progress and development. We should respect our teachers like our priests and accept the knowledge they offer with complete openness, dedication and humility. We should change our way of thinking and our approach to education. If we take it as religion it will surely make more sense and have more meaning for us.

Hope reading and by God bless,

From the desk of Principal's
